

Student:

What is Identity, and how are Identities Constructed? P. 145-154
1	A culture's assumptions about the differences between men and women, their character, roles and divisions of labor are referred to as_____. Answer:
2	What is "Identity" according to Geographer Gilliam Rose? Answer:
3	How did we get the modern social construction of the term "race" to identify people? Answer:
4	What is the term for the sense of superiority that is attached to "race?" Answer:
5	The regional variation in the appearance of humans in clustered populations probably results from Answer:
6	Skin color is a matter of pigmentation, a protective element against strong radiation from the sun. What is this pigment called? Answer:
7	Which vitamin is stimulated into production by the same ultraviolet radiation intercepted by darkly pigmented skin? Answer:
8	The USA has become increasingly "non-white" as a result of what two major factors? Answer: Answer:
9	According to Table 5.1, what percentage of Americans categorized themselves in the 2010 as two or more races? Answer:
10	What groups of people were excluded by the use of the word "Hispanic" in the 2010 USA Census? Answer:
11	According to the 2010 USA Census, which city in the USA was the most residentially segregated for African Americans? Answer:
12	Overall, is residential segregation increasing or decreasing in the USA? Explain. Answer:
13	According to the 2000 USA Census, which city in the southwest was the most residentially segregated for American Indians? Answer:
14	Give some examples of how we see ourselves at the individual scale? Answer:
15	Give some examples of how we see ourselves at the local scale? Answer:
16	Give some examples of how we see ourselves at the regional scale? Answer:

Student:

17	Give some examples of how we see ourselves at the national scale? Answer:
18	Give some examples of how we see ourselves at the global scale? Answer:
19	The majority of New York's 2.2 million "Hispanics" come from what TWO countries? Answer: Answer:
20	In New York, Puerto Ricans moved into the Jewish neighborhood of East Harlem and assumed a dominant presence in the neighborhood. This process is best described as _____? Answer:
How do Places Affect Identity and How can we see Identities in Places? P.155-158
21	What two elements greatly affect ethnic identity? Answer: Answer:
22	According to the map (Figure 5.9), in 1925, Mexicali's Chinatown what was the major economic activity of the Chinese located near army headquarters? Answer:
23	What is the term used to describe places that are "designed" either for women or men? Answer:
24	Geographers, Elder, Knopp, and Nast created a term that refers to theories that explain or inform our understanding of sexuality and space. What is this term called? Answer:
25	According to the map, (Figure 5.10), what TWO areas have the highest concentrations of same-sex households? Answer: Answer:
How Does Geography Reflect and Shape Power Relationships Amon Groups of People? P. 159-170
26	Groups in Northern Ireland, and gangs in major cities in the USA both use similar tactics to create "exclusive" areas? What do they use to mark their territory? Answer:
27	Prior to the 14 th Amendment to the US Constitution how were slaves counted for representation in the House of Representatives? Answer:
28	In the USA, Gross National Income is the most commonly used statistic on productivity that counts the monetary worth of what is produced within a country plus income received from investments outside the country. What TWO major economic contributions of women does the GNI not include? Answer: Answer:
29	Finish the sentence: The proportion of women in the labor force grew in all regions reported by the United Nations except in _____ and in _____.

Student:

	Answer: Answer:
30	How did parts of South Africa and Zimbabwe become demographically “feminized”? Answer:
31	What percentage of food in Sub-Saharan Africa is produced by women? Answer:
32	How did the government of Kenya stimulate tea production? Answer:
33	When dowry contracts are broken in India, how are women affected? Answer:
34	In 1910, how did the city of Oakland, CA ethnically segregate the Chinese? (in italics) Answer:
35	In 1970, South Central Los Angeles was 90% black. Now it is split evenly with what other ethnic group? Answer:
36	What is the ethnicity of many of the small business owners in South Central Los Angeles? Answer: